

Who is Wild Yeast Bakery?

Wild Yeast Bakery is a micro-bakery that is focused on making great bread that is solely leavened with the wild yeast that is only found in a sourdough starter or leaven. Another thing that also sets apart is that we always bulk ferment the dough.

What is the Wild Yeast Bakery Advantage?

The typical method of leavening bread uses only one strand of yeast. We use a sourdough starter that contains about thirty to sixty strands of yeast.

More strands of yeast equals more flavor

We also take a cue from beer makers and ferment our grains for an extended time.

Longer bulk fermentation equals more flavor

We are a Community Supported Bakery (CSB)

As a CSB you can buy a share in Wild Yeast Bakery's weekly production.

We understand that not everyone goes through a loaf of bread a week so we offer partial shares as well. Whether you buy a full or partial share you will be getting some of the best artisan bread available in the Des Moines Metro area.

How much is a share?

Full Share One loaf every week for a year	$240.00
Half Share One loaf every other week for a year	$125.00
Quarter Share One loaf a month for a year	$60.00
Month Share One loaf a week for month	$21.00
Half Month Share One loaf every other week for a month	$11.00
